

A citizen has the right to print information or their opinion in the news without being stopped.

A citizen has the right to collect the names of other people in support of a change.

1st Amendment
The first change to the U.S. Constitution (document that states the fundamental laws and rights of citizens)

A citizen has the right to gather peacefully to protest something.

A citizen has the right practice a religion of their choosing.

A citizen has the right to peacefully express their opinion in public.