

Source taken from: Nevins, S. (2020). 'For colored people, [they] had a great many friends: The Phillips-Lynde family of Windham, Connecticut, and Brookfield, Vermont. Vermont History, 88(1), 1-34.

By Major General Knox, commanding the Garrison of West-point and its dependencies — — — — —
— John Lines, Soldier in the Connecticut Regiment, being enlisted for three years, is hereby discharged
the Service of the United States — — — — —
Given at West-point the 15th day November
1783 — — — — —
By order of the General [Signature] Knox Major General [Signature] Mawh. D. Camp.

John Lines discharge at Westpoint, NY, from the Connecticut Regiment on November 15, 1783. (Courtesy of the National Archives and Records Administration)