Use the questions below to guide your conversation. Feel free to ask additional questions or follow up for clarification. Space is provided for you to take notes during the interview, but you can attach another sheet of paper if you need more space.

1. Where were you when you first realized that the COVID-19 pandemic was going to change daily life?
2. How did your daily routine change during the initial lockdown period?
3. What was the most challenging part of the lockdown for you personally?
4. How did you stay connected with friends and family when you couldn't see them in person?

Name: _____

5. Were there any new hobbies, skills, or habits you picked up during that time?

6. What is a specific memory from the pandemic that stands out to you most vividly?

7. How did your community (neighborhood, school, or workplace) support one another?

8. Looking back, what do you think was the biggest lesson you learned from that experience?

9. How do you think the world has changed permanently since 2020?

10. If someone were to read this interview 100 years from now, what is the one thing you want them to know about living through this time?
